August 2021

Youth Services Summer Days at the Parks

This summer, the Youth Services program staff have been familiar figures around the City of Baraboo parks, conducting programs with kids from Birth to 5th grade and their family members. Through a partnership with the City of Baraboo Parks, Recreation and Forestry Dept., weekly activities, story times and family programs showcased a variety of spaces to help families get to know their local parks too.

Children and adults share quiet moments of reading during a lull in the story time action at the Maxwell-Potter Conservancy on June 23, part of the Stories in the Park program series.

Stories in the Park at City View Park on June 16 featured Mr. Anne (above, kneeling) and Ms. Cari Jo (below) reading stories, leading rhyming games, and activities.

Kickball on July 13 was one of the outdoor games featured at our area parks during the Game On program series.

Lucky Readers Win Prizes

Each week this summer we have drawn a Reader Response slip at random from among all the slips returned during the previous week, entitling the lucky reader to $20 worth of Baraboo Chamber Bucks. Although a person can only win one of our weekly drawings, we save all slips from each week and add them to the growing collection for the Grand Prize drawing on August 16 for $50 worth of Chamber Bucks. So keep reading and turning in up to 3 Reader Response slips each week!

Library staff members drew the names of lucky winners from the Reader Response slips collected during the weeks 4 through 7 of the Summer Adult R&R Program. Clockwise from top, Substitute Circulation Assistant Eleanor Johnson, Cataloging/Purchasing Coordinator Mari Jo Burri, Circulation Assistant Megan Olson, Library Page Linda Lyons, and Library Circulation Supervisor Zach Ott drew Marlene's, Linda's, Linda V.'s, Brad's, and Isabelle's slips, respectively. Congratulations, winners!
