Language Labs

Mondays this fall 5-6 PM

Library Creative Classroom

Open to Adults and Teens

This fall, the library is offering a space for language enthusiasts to gather to work on their ability to communicate in three different languages: Spanish, French, and American Sign Language. Note: a language teacher will not be present. This is a space to practice a language you are already learning with other language-learners. Elements of culture (food, music, etc.) may periodically be highlighted.

Monday, Dec. 11 (second Monday of the month): American Sign Language

Monday, Dec. 18 (third Monday of the month): Spanish

Tuesday, Dec. 19 (date change due to holiday): French

Craft/Tea Social Hour

Monday, December 4 at 5 PM

Library Creative Classroom

This fall, meet at the library on the first Monday of the month to work on your craft projects and drink tea in a relaxed social environment! This will be a space to bring your own craft projects you're working on, or use craft supplies provided by the library. We'll have coloring pages, yarn, knitting needles, crochet hooks, and various painting supplies. You bring the creativity, the library will supply the tea!

Readers Anonymous Book Club

Thursday, December 14 at 6:30 PM

Van Orden Mansion, 531 4th Ave., Baraboo

At the December meeting, Readers Anonymous, the book club for Millennials, will discuss And Then There Were None* by Agatha Christie.

"In And Then There Were None, the bestselling mystery of all time, ten strangers are lured to an isolated island mansion off the Devon coast where, over dinner, a recorded message accuses each of them of harboring a guilty secret. And then night after night, one by one, another of them is found dead." ~Barnes & Noble
