JULY 2021

New Name and Logo For Library July 1

On July 1, 2021, the Baraboo Public Library will officially become

CARNEGIE-SCHADDE
MEMORIAL PUBLIC LIBRARY
BARABOO, WISCONSIN

Carnegie-Schadde

Memorial Public Library. The name honors the family of Juanita Schadde, whose $2.5 million donation helped make the library expansion project possible. The Schadde family have been long-time Baraboo proprietors of Schadde Plumbing and Heating, founded a few years before the date of the library's 1895 charter. The name also recognizes the original major benefactor of the library, Andrew Carnegie, the industrialist and philanthropist whose $15,000 grant to the City of Baraboo on March 14, 1902 enabled Baraboo to build a public library.

The original name of the library, Carnegie Free Library, will remain part of the historic 1903 edifice, even after the library expansion is complete.

"By the late 1800s, many people in Baraboo had worked for years to establish a public library with meetings and fundraising efforts, and collecting books to make it a reality," said Library Director Jessica Bergin. "The Carnegie donation was significant enough to make a library building in Baraboo a physical reality. Similarly, staff, volunteers, and donors had worked since the early 2000s to expand the Baraboo library, and the Schadde donation put the current library expansion project over the finish line for City approval."

Construction was slated to begin this spring, but the final approval on the $6 million rural development loan from the United States Department of Agriculture was delayed.

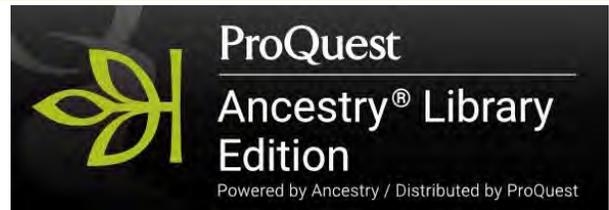

"We are hopeful we will begin construction this summer or fall," Bergin said. "We are preparing for the many changes that will occur in the physical library building over the next several months. The library will remain open to the public during construction."

"Our new name signals our enduring connection with our history," Bergin said. "We will maintain the library's role as a community center for lifelong learning and literacy, bringing people, information, and ideas together."

The library's website address will change to www.csmpl.org July 1.

Ancestry Library Edition home access extended

If you are ready to embark on a family history adventure, we have good news for you. Home access to ProQuest Ancestry Library Edition has been extended through December 31, 2021. ## Programs for Adults

Baraboo Buds Garden Club Tuesday, July 13 at 6:30 PM

The library is hosting an interest group for gardeners of all experience levels in the Baraboo area. Our first meeting is at 6:30 PM on Tuesday, July 13 at Ritzenthaler Park, 500 12th Street, Baraboo.

Share your veggie victories, fruit frustrations, ornamental observations and great gardening ideas.

Register by completing the online registration form on our web page or by calling Joan at 356-6166 to receive updated meeting details.

Chess at the Library Wednesday, July 14 at 6:30 PM

At 6:30 PM on Wednesday, July 14, chess returns to the library. This will be a self-directed program for chess players with some experience. You can bring your own chess set or use one of ours.

Due to space limitations at the library, chess playing will be limited to 3 tables in front of the fireplace.

Our Readers Recommend...

As part of the Summer Adult R & R Reading Program, participating patrons have been filling out brief Reader Response slips where they tell what they liked best about a book they have read and to whom they would recommend the book.

To help other patrons discover reader-recommended books, we are posting the recommendations—in no particular order—on our website at the library website (note the new address):

<https://www.csmp1.org/recommendations-our-patrons>

We are also posting them on the wall near the Adult Services desk.

The Sanatorium by Sarah Pearse

What did you like most about this book?

It was suspenseful.

To whom would you recommend this book?

To someone who likes.../crime novels.

When the Stars Go Dark by Paula McLain

What did you like most about this book?

It was a page turner. Good writing in the sense it was able to capture abuse without getting too graphic.

To whom would you recommend this book?

You Are Your Best Thing by Taran Burke and Brenè Brown

What did you like most about this book?

Furthering my education with the 20 anthologies from African American authors. Burke is African American and Brown is white. Both are authors among other talents. Very well done.

To whom would you recommend this book?

Anyone who wants to expand their understanding of...

The Wife Stalker by Liv Constantine

What did you like most about this book?

The characters held my interest and the story flowed. The ending was a surprising twist.

To whom would you recommend this book?

Anybody who likes a story about good and bad and seeing who prevails.

Programs for Adults

Improv Lab in the Park Friday, July 23 at 7 PM * Band Shelter at Ochsner Park

Improv Lab will bring their high jinks to the Band Shelter at Ochsner Park for a FREE family-friendly program. Their antics will appeal to the ridiculous and thoughtful in audiences of all ages!

Bring your own lawn chair or blanket.

* Rain date Friday, July 30 at 7 PM in the Band Shelter.

This program is co-sponsored by Carnegie-Schadde Memorial Public Library of Baraboo and the City of Baraboo Parks, Recreation, and Forestry Department.

Have you upgraded to the New LINKcat Mobile App?

The new streamlined—and FREE—LINKcat mobile app is now available for both Apple and Android devices and will be easier to use and more tightly integrated with LINKcat. Besides giving patrons the ability to search LINKcat, place and manage holds, view checkouts and due dates, and renew materials, some of the new mobile app features are:

- a digital library card
- Spanish language labels and messages
- more accessibility features for patrons
- a list of LINKcat libraries with directions, hours, and contact information.

Lucky Readers Win Prizes

On June 14, June 21, and June 28, we drew a Reader Response slip at random from among all the slips returned during the previous week, entitling the lucky reader to $20 worth of Baraboo Chamber Bucks. Although a person can only win one of our weekly drawings, we save all slips from each week and add them to the growing collection for the Grand Prize drawing on August 16 for $50 worth of Chamber Bucks. So keep reading and turning in up to 3 Reader Response slips each week!

The current LINKcat mobile app was set to expire on June 30, 2021. If you already use the LINKcat app on an Apple device, the existing app should have updated automatically on June 1.

Patrons can download the new LINKcat mobile app from the Apple App Store or Google Play Store. The new LINKcat mobile app will be able to remain current regardless of iOS or Android updates.

Book Clubs for Adults

Tuesdays with Murder Book Club Tuesday, July 20 at 6:30 PM

This book group is for anyone who enjoys reading mysteries. The featured author for the July 20 meeting is Robert Crais. Read any of his Cole and Pike series and join us for our discussion! Contact the library at 608-356-6166 if you need help obtaining a Robert Crais book.

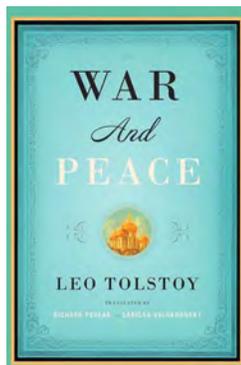

Complete the one-time registration form on the website so we can get your name and email address. We will email you details about the July 20 meeting.

We will meet in person outdoors, or via Zoom, depending on the weather. We will email you your Zoom invitation before the Tuesdays with Murder meeting if it will be held over Zoom.

Readers Anonymous Book Club Wednesday, July 21 at 6:30 PM

Call Zach at 356-6166 for meeting details.

Lit Wits Book Club Tuesday, July 27 at 6:30 PM

On July 27 the Lit Wits Book Club, the book club for seasoned readers, will discuss the book The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie by Muriel Spark.

“At the staid Marcia Blaine School for Girls in Edinburgh, Scotland, teacher extraordinaire Miss Jean Brodie is unmistakably, and outspokenly, in her prime. She is passionate in the application of her unorthodox teaching methods and strives to bring out the best in each one of her students. Determined to instill in them independence, passion, and ambition, Miss Brodie advises them, ‘Safety does not come first. Goodness, Truth, and Beauty come first. Follow me.’ And they do--but one of them will betray her.” ~ goodreads.com

Complete the one-time registration form on our webpage so we can get your name and email address. We will email you your Zoom invitation and/or the decision about meeting mode/location before this Lit Wits meeting.

Virtual Cookbook Club Monday, July 12 at 6 PM

For our meeting on July 12, the featured cuisine is from India. Choose a cookbook through LINKcat, or call us at 356-6166 to let us help you get one! You can also prepare an online recipe or one from your own favorite cookbook.

Complete the one-time registration form on our website so we can get your name and email address. We will email you your Zoom invitation, or communicate about outdoor meeting arrangements before each monthly meeting. (If you already registered once, you do not need to do so again.)
