

PLEASE NOTE:
THIS INDEX IS FOR THIS VOLUME ONLY

AN EXPLANATION:

This is Volume IV of our books titled "Sauk County and Baraboo". These books are a series of historical events told in anecdotal form.

This volume IV continues where Volumes I, II, and III left off. Those volumes were published in 2008. They contained the some 372 stories which I had written up to that time, all of which had previously been published in the Baraboo News-Republic. An INDX was produced and published in Volume III for those three volumes.

I had presumed in 2008 that having reached the age of 89, I would not be writing many additional articles, but the continual advent of additional material was a lure not to be denied. The result was 107 additional stories. Now at age 93, it seems prudent to wrap it up as far as book publishing is concerned, though there are still potential tales in my ideas file.

SO--this volume therefore contains its own index. The index for the first three volumes is found at the end of Volume III.
