Winter Diorama Contest!

Entries accepted:

January 9-January 31

Celebrate the winter season by creating a winter-themed diorama and have it displayed at the library. Starting January 9th, pick up supplies at the library circulation desks. Supplies will be distributed on a first come, first served basis. Return your completed diorama and register it at the Youth Services Desk by January 31. Voting occurs February 1st-15th. Winners will be notified by Friday, February 17.

Teen Winter Reading Challenge

January 2-January 31

Stay cozy this winter by reading books. For every book you read, fill out a form for a raffle ticket. Raffle tickets are entered into a drawing for bookish-related prizes. All entries must be submitted by 5 pm on January 31.

This will be a time for teens to play Magic: The Gathering with other teens in a relaxed atmosphere, where they can ask questions and learn about the game. A local volunteer and expert will be on hand to answer questions about the game. Premade decks will be available for players to use. See pages 2, 3, and 4 for other upcoming meeting dates.

Check Out this Cozy Winter Read!

The Midnight Girls by Alicia Jasinska is a beautiful fantasy set in the wintry Polish countryside. Two young servants, Midnight and Midday, who have been in a magical competition since they were children, are both tasked with stealing the heart of the prince. As they get to know each other, each girl must decide what is truly important to her--this new friendship that has become something more, her freedom, or her devotion to her master. Recommended for ages 14+. (Recommended by Ms. Beth)

Teen Book Club: We will be discussing Howl's Moving Castle by Diana Wynne Jones on Friday, December 9 at 4:00 PM at the library.
